LATE NEWS ITEMS.

-The cost of prosecuting Lindsley, the child-whipper, was two thousand dollars; and as his fine was only two hundred and fifty dollars, it is suggested that it would have been cheaper and better for the country to have paid him the seventeen hundred and fifty dollars and saved the farce

-Work has been resumed on the mag-ficent Roman Catholic Cathedral, on Fifth avenue, New York, projected by Archbishop Hughes, the corner stone of which was laid August 15, 1858. Its extreme length will be 325 feet; extreme breadth, 174 feet; general breadth, 132 fect. It is to cost $4,000,000.

-A manufacturer in Boston lately remarked that he had in his employ thirty girls whom he did not pay as much wages as their board amounted to. He was asked how he supposed they managed to live. "Oh," said he, "they are sharp enough for that." If the devil don't get such employers, it will be because he is cheated out of what belongs to him.

-The Boston Traveler recalls the inter-esting historical fact that Maximilian is the most respectable member of one of the most ancient of the reigning houses of the old world, a house that was at the head of the Holy Roman Empire long before Mexico had been heard of among Christians, and which ruled over Mexico for almost two centuries, from the time that Cortez conquered it for Charles I, (V of Germany,) in 1521, to the death of Charles 11, in 1700.

-On Thursday evening, a lady of Troy, N. Y., sitting in her room, was instantaneously oppressed with the con-viction that her little son had fallen from the window in his sleeping apartment to the ground below. She repelled the thought as an impossibility. In a few moments more it flashed upon her mind with such force that she was unable to resist it. She hurried to the bedside of her son, and there, to her intense horror, she discovered the lad sleeping upon the window sill, the window open, his head projecting outside—he was on the very point of falling to the pavement below! Who can explain this phenomenon, which is unquestionably true?

-The Judiciary Committee lately rent a confidential person to Nashville to ascertain the relations that existed between J. Wilkes Booth and President Johnson when both were in Nashville, during the latter part of the war. After interrogating many prominent men of both parties, nothing further was discovered than that Booth and the then military governor of Tennessee had no connection with each other whatever. Apropos of this, a Nashville paper says: Strange to relate, Gen. Grant, who knew that Booth was a rank rebel, and had refused to take the oath, gave him a pass to go to New Or-leans in the early part of 1864, writing and signing the document himself."
